BY WALTER TROHAN

Chief of Chicago Tribune's Washington Burgau [Copyright 1961 by Chicago Tylbune]

ASHINGTON, April 30-It may be that the time has come for President Kennedy to send his youthful advisers back to Harvard for more schooling before they can compound the fiasco in Cuba, blunders in South America, and demagogery in Africa.

The full responsibility for incalculable harm wrought in Cuba has been shouldered by the President but there is no doubt that he was misled by those who told him a token landing of rebels would touch off a popular uprising. Among the advisers were Harvard men, Theodore C. Sorenson, No. 1 White House sid; J. Arthur Schlesinger Jr., special White House adviser; and McGeorge Bundy, White House adviser.

There were other Harvard men who had a hand in the Cuban fizzle in the state department. And there were still others, who were not Harvard men, like Allen W. Dulles, director of the Central Intelligence agency. These were not so immediately at the Presidential elbow as the Harvard members of his official family.

Trohan

The White House aids also had a hand in encouraging the administration to get into a demagogic duel with Russia in Africa. They encouraged the sending of Assistant Secretary of State G. Mennen Williams and Vice President Johnson to the dark continent. Both made statements calculated not only to arouse the passions and prejudices of the masses of Africa but to keep colored Arcericans voting Democratic, altho the vast majority of American Negroes are further removed from the quarrels of Africa than their white brethren are from the quarrels of Europe.

U. S. Aid Is Hailed as "Castro Bonus"

OHNSON TOOK CAFE TO HAVE himself photographed smiling like an indifferent uncle on a Negre child. This from a much who maneuvered so long to keep sirong civil rights legislation from getting thru Congress. Russians have long preciced the Williams Johnson game.

In South America the voting of a 600 million dellar Amerigan aid program was pailed this week as "a Castro bonus." The bearded dictator is getting credit for the dollars Ameritex payers will dole out at the suggestion of Kennedy's ward advisers.

Adolph A. Berke Jr., an aging Harvard prodigg, visited Softh America in bading a new task force on Latin American grams. Berle to graduated from Harvard in 1913 at the niets of staff or the state department. The final decision was made, as President Lennedy has said, in the White House.

Since the the collecte President Kennedy has som former Vice President Nixon, Sen., Barry Goldwater [R., Afr.] former President Eisenhower, former President Hoover, and Gen. Douglas MacArthur, all Republicans. He may feel that after taking the advice of Harvard in-

red For Release 2000/04/13 : CI

058R000200140151-7